

World Hand Hygiene Day @ The Oberoi Amarvilas

World Hand Hygiene Day was celebrated by The Oberoi Amarvilas on 5th May 2015 as per the guidelines of Hotel Association of India. The Main aim of celebrating the event was to create an environment in hotel and public areas conducive to the hand hygiene day's significance.

The Day started with demonstrations of hand washing for school students of Lopa Mudra Vidya Mandir Purva Madhyamik Vidhyalaya, Taj Ganj, Agra on how and when to properly wash hands. Chef Vaibhav Soni told the students about the importance of hand hygiene and 10 steps of washing their hands; this was followed by a demonstration of hand washing in which students enthusiastically participated.

General Manager Mr Ankush Mahajan and team gave away soap packs to the children to take home, share their knowledge of hand hygiene with their families and spread awareness about its benefits.

After the visit to school The Oberoi Amarvilas team participated in Poster Making Competition to spread awareness with the help of colors to promote the theme of hand hygiene and encourage all to make it part of their plans to mark World Hand Hygiene Day. In which team members participated with enthusiasm and expressed their knowledge about hand hygiene with colors, first prize was won by the poster made by Shruti, Akрати, Ishwar and Sushobhit which had the message “Germs are not for Sharing, scrub them off”

Later a Presentation on hand hygiene was given by the Kitchen team with a video on how to correctly wash hands , followed by a demonstration of hand washing.

Hand washing isn't exactly an arduous chore, especially since it's done in the name of killing germs, says Sous Chef Hasan Mehndi Rizvi while explaining the methods and importance of Hand Hygiene to the team members.

Short films were screened on television in public area and Framed Posters promoting Hand Hygiene Day has been put in public areas, staff cafeteria, staff rest rooms where they are visible to the team while they are washing their hands.

People need to wash their hands for about 15 to 20 seconds to kill any type of dangerous bacteria. Most people wash their hands for about six seconds. Without executing the correct hand sanitizing techniques, grime, dirt and bacteria that would otherwise be sent down the drain stays on the hands and increases the host's likelihood of becoming seriously ill. Washing hands properly after using the toilet, handling animals and before and after handling food helps prevent the spread of various forms of germs, some of which can cause serious health problems.

Awareness Campaign at 'Buzzcourt'

The Oberoi Grand Kolkata took a vow to fight the invisible and the smallest enemies to mankind- GERMS!

The emphasis was on the fact that we don't necessarily need a single day to celebrate 'Hand Hygiene'. We all should understand and believe that it should be a regular practice amongst all of us.

A swab test kit had been organised from Johnson Diversey and all team members were encouraged to take the test. What was surprising to all was that even after they had washed their hands, the swab test showed the germs and the areas which usually get infested due to our negligence and lack of awareness.

Activity of the Day – A Team Quiz!

A competition had been organised for the team to check which team member was best equipped to fight germs.

Attractive gifts were handed out to them as they were certified 'clean'. The maximum prizes were won by team Housekeeping!

‘World Hand Hygiene Day’ : Initiatives at The Oberoi, Mumbai & Trident Nariman Point

Celebrating Hand Hygiene Day!

Aligning itself with the World Health Organization’s World Hand Hygiene Day, Hotel Association Of India launched the first hygiene day on 5th May, 2014 with a vision to emphasise the importance of washing hands, as an effective way of promoting community health and wellbeing.

Aim : Continuing the tradition, on the 2nd Hand Hygiene Day, today we are committed in Strengthening our Health and Wellbeing!

The main aim of celebrating this event in the hotel was to spread awareness among the team members about the importance of hand hygiene.

Our message is simple: Clean hands, neat hands. Hand cleanliness is one of the most important measures to fight against healthcare associated infections.

The event started buzzing from the morning at Beehive, our cafeteria.

Posters and tent cards on the tables : We spread the word through interactive posters talking about the importance of the Hand hygiene and cleanliness.

Hand Hygiene Corner : A separate corner displaying the importance of Hand hygiene was created at the entrance of the cafeteria which displayed the following :

- Details on Health Hygiene Day
- Why should we wash hands?
- When to wash hands?
- Soap and sanitizer dispenser used in the washing areas of the hotel

Hand Hygiene Alley : The two main entrances of the cafeteria were blocked and all the team members were guided to walk through the hand washing area. The correct way of hand washing was demonstrated there and post which, team members were made to sanitize their hands before their meals, hence completing the hand washing cycle!

Videos: Short videos on 'Steps of washing hands technique' were played during tea / lunch breaks.

Session on Hand Hygiene and Hand Washing Technique for Hunar Se Rozgar Candidates

A special session on Hand Hygiene and Hand washing technique was conducted by the Training Manager, Ms. Aparna Passi for the batch of 'Hunar Se Rozgar - 2015' which consisted of 40 team members, Considering the fact that it is their first exposure to a hotel operation and they are fresh pass outs from school, the session lasted for an hour. After which, we had an exciting hand washing competition.

Hand Hygiene Quiz

The day ended with an exciting quiz at the evening tea time at Beehive, where 20 questions related to Hand Hygiene awareness were asked. It created a great hype in the team and sanitizers were given to the winners as gifts.

We commit to a sustained effort to educate our team members with regards to the importance of the hand washing and good hygiene.

WORLD HAND HYGIENE DAY
AT THE OBEROI CECIL SHIMLA
5TH MAY 2015

The Oberoi Cecil, Shimla observed WHO sponsored Hand Hygiene Day on 5th May 2015. Many activities were planned on 4th and 5th May to generate awareness among team members about significance of hand hygiene. On 4th May the hotel hosted Mr. Saurabh Sachdev from Johnson Diversey who made an impactful presentation on hand hygiene and relevance of hand washing. The presentation was followed a practical session on washing hands. On 5th May 2015, poster campaigning activity was undertaken. Relevant areas of the hotel carried posters highlighting the importance of washing hands. This was followed by a hand washing session led by the Executive team. All team members washed their hands in a designated area to express solidarity with the cause.

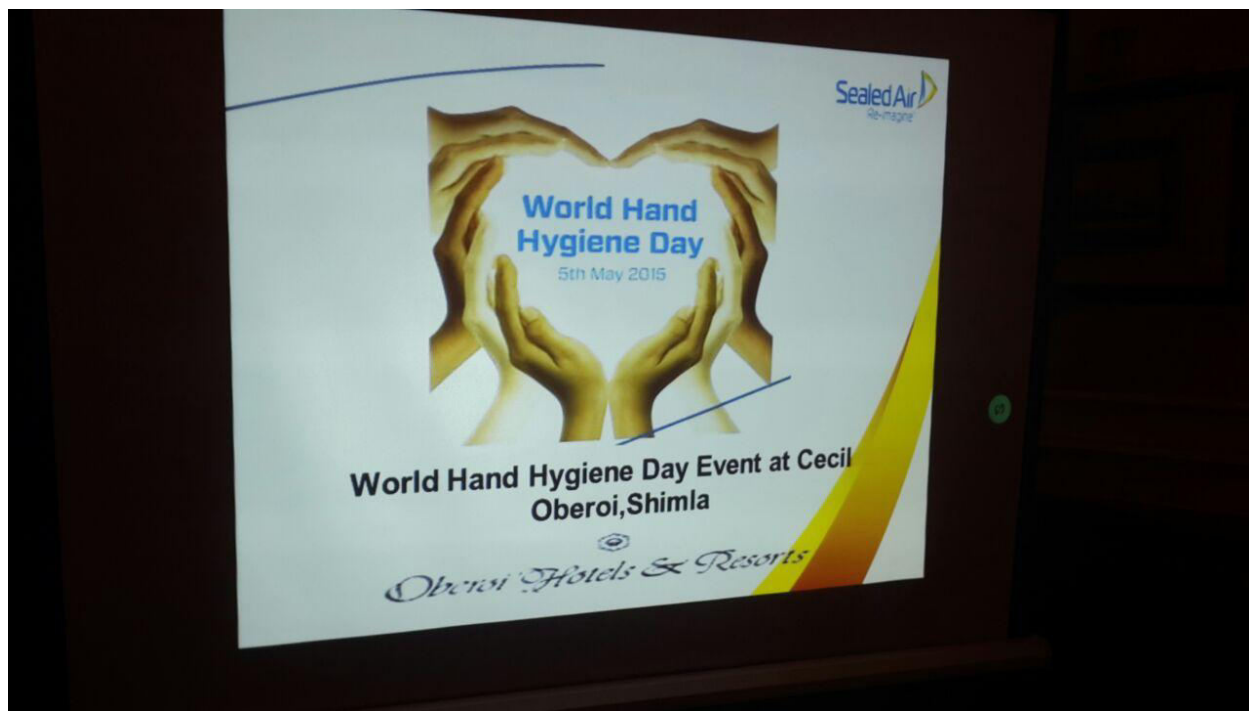

In the staff dining room, a video show was organized during tea break in the morning and evening. Interesting videos on hand washing including the recommended method of washing hands was screened for all members of the team.

It gave all of us at The Oberoi Cecil immense pleasure to partner a social cause.
